AAPC Statement on NAFTA Announcement

WASHINGTON, DC- Governor Matt Blunt, president of the American Automotive Policy Council, issued the following statement on the most recent NAFTA announcement:

“AAPC has supported the negotiations to create a modernized NAFTA, and we are optimistic that the new agreement will maintain and encourage the ongoing competitiveness of the United States and North American auto industries. We will be reviewing the details to ensure it creates a trade environment that allows FCA US, Ford and GM to continue thriving, creating jobs and growing our economy. We commend the United States and Mexican negotiators for their success and urge them to work with their Canadian counterparts to complete this negotiation.”

The American Automotive Policy Council (AAPC) is a Washington, D.C. association that represents the common public policy interests of its member companies FCA US LLC, Ford Motor Company and General Motors Company.
