

March 8, 2013

AAPC Statement on Sen. Carl Levin's Retirement

WASHINGTON, D.C. – American Automotive Policy Council President Matt Blunt issued the following statement on Sen. Carl Levin's retirement.

"Sen. Levin has been a passionate and critical supporter of American automakers and their employees for over thirty years in the United States Senate. His dedicated service to the people of Michigan, the Detroit automakers and the hundreds of thousands of Michiganders whose jobs they support serves as a model for others.

"Sen. Levin has played a vital role in the development of the modern American automotive industry and has been instrumental in helping Chrysler, Ford and General Motors become leaders not only in sales, but in fuel efficiency and safety. We look forward to working closely with Sen. Levin during his remaining time in office and furthering the growth of the American automakers and hope that his successor will share his passion for this vital American industry."

The American Automotive Policy Council, Inc. (AAPC) is a Washington, D.C. association that represents the common public policy interests of its member companies Chrysler Group LLC, Ford Motor Company and General Motors Company.

###